

Nominations requested for Regional Leadership Award

Nominate someone today! The deadline for nominations is April 2, 2010.

The Coalition for a Livable Future (CLF) seeks nominations for its Robert L. Liberty Regional Leadership Award. The Regional Leadership Award recognizes and rewards leaders who have made significant contributions to the livability of the Portland-Vancouver metropolitan region. Community members are invited to nominate an individual who has demonstrated initiative and creative leadership in addressing livability issues in the region. The award will be presented at the Regional Livability Summit on April 29, 2010.

The Award is named after Robert L. Liberty in recognition of his outstanding service to the citizens of the Portland metropolitan region, and to the protection of community livability. Mr. Liberty was the Executive Director of 1000 Friends of Oregon, and co-founder of the Coalition for a Livable Future. In past years the Regional Leadership Award has been presented to Diana Lobo, Damascus area citizen leader; Jim Labbe, Urban Conservationist for the Audubon Society of Portland, Jeri Sundvall, Executive Director of Environmental Justice Action Group; Charlotte Lehan, Mayor of Wilsonville; Congressman Earl Blumenauer; Deb Lippoldt, Executive Director of Growing Gardens; and to Linda Robinson, East Portland citizen leader. All have been tireless advocates for protecting and improving the region's quality of life, and ensuring that all our region's residents have the opportunity to live in healthy and sustainable communities.

Please send us your nomination for an individual whose efforts have:

- Educated citizens about development and growth issues
- Implemented regional or local policies and practices that improve livability
- Confronted threats to the Portland metropolitan region's livability
- Demonstrated initiative and creative leadership
- Led to desirable environmental and social outcomes
